VILLAGE MOVEMENT CALIFORNIA is a coalition of grassroots community organizations called villages. Villages are peer led membership groups that connect older adults to the community, services, and expertise they need to continue living lives of purpose and promise as they remain in their own homes and communities.

Villages improve quality of life, health and wellness, and expand choices at all stages of aging—empowering older adults to sustain independence and remain in charge of their lives as they age.

WHY IT MATTERS:

By 2030, California will be home to 10.8 million older adults, accounting for one-quarter of the state's population. A large portion of these folks will not qualify for publicly funded programs and cannot readily afford the cost of long-term services and support.

Social isolation and loneliness are public health epidemics that disproportionately impact older adults.

Villages foster and sustain connection and purpose, the keys to healthy aging. Exponential growth in the older adult population and demand for affordable services requires a cost effective, scalable solution. Villages are part of that solution.

WHAT WE DO:

Built on principles of reciprocity, villages mobilize an intergenerational corps of volunteers to meet the everyday needs of their older neighbors.

VILLAGE DEVELOPMENT:

Our Village Incubator empowers communities to launch their own unique villages and the Village Accelerator builds capacity and sustainability for our existing villages.

These program advances the state's Master Plan on Aging, meeting its mandate for more villages.
