About CA Association of Area Agencies on Aging

The California Association of Area Agencies on Aging (C4A) is a nonprofit organization representing California's 33 area agencies on aging. Its purpose is to advocate on behalf of older persons, persons with disabilities, their caregivers and families, to provide leadership within the aging and disability communities, and to promote a service delivery system that provides individual choice. Issues range from working on policy initiatives that benefit older persons, making transportation and meals available to older adults, and helping caregivers find support and services.

C4A works closely with the Administration on Aging, the California Department of Aging, Department of Social Services, Department of Rehabilitation as well as key provider associations like Village Movement California. Go to <https://c4aging.info> to find your regional AAA.

About Alzheimer's Association

The Alzheimer's Association leads the way to end Alzheimer's and all other dementia -- by accelerating global research, driving risk reduction and early detection, and maximizing quality care and support. Five local chapters throughout California are available to provide support, education, training, and other resources to support those facing Alzheimer's disease or memory loss. We are here to help. Go to <http://alz.org> to find your local chapter.

About California Senior Medicare Patrol

The California Senior Medicare Patrol (SMP) is the premier project within the non-profit California Health Advocates. We are dedicated to empowering people with current and accurate education and information about Medicare fraud schemes and COVID-19 scams victimizing older adults and persons with disabilities. The California SMP is one of the nation's 54 Medicare fraud prevention and education programs funded through the Department of Health and Human Services. Our free services include in-person and virtual fraud prevention workshops, ongoing fraud alerts, educational webinars, and resources published in 9 languages.

Our materials and free handouts can be found on www.cahealthadvocates.org. We also provide a toll-free, statewide hotline at 855-613-7080 for questions about Medicare fraud and scams as well as assistance discerning medical statements where fraudulent billing is suspected.

California Phones
Keeping you connected.

About California Phones

Telephones were our link to family, friends, and businesses during the pandemic. If using a standard telephone has become difficult, get in touch with California Phones! These specialized California Phones from the California Telephone Access Program (CTAP) are available at NO COST! There is NO age or income requirement. If you or someone you know has hearing loss, vision, mobility, memory, or speech difficulties, California Phones are for you. There's a phone, or accessory, like our cell phone amplifier, for every need. Amplified phones that make it easier to hear conversations. Big button phones that are easier to dial. Portable phones – and more.

Visit www.californiaphones.org for more details and to download an application. Once you have completed your application have your doctor, (or other certified professional), sign it, and get it back to California Phones by mail, email, fax, or in person to start the process. To schedule a presentation for your village, please call 1-800-995-6831.

About CircleTalk™

Connection, belonging, and relationships matter more than ever as we emerge from a pandemic. CircleTalk™ programs create opportunities for new relationships through fun and evocative activities and conversations. Circle members rediscover parts of themselves and feel a sense of belonging that can be lost as they age.

How Does CircleTalk™ Work? CircleTalk™ trains professionals, caregivers and volunteers to lead meaningful, small group conversations, both virtually and/or in-person. Leaders guide conversations in a unique, field-tested curriculum. Weekly thought-provoking themes and fun activities inspire lively discussions, sharing memories and life stories.

CircleTalk™ promotes well-being and self-reflection; people feel heard, seen and engaged.

Contact us for a conference coupon (55% Discount on our Leader Course) and learn more about how connection and belonging can become a way of life in your community. Contact: Deb Skovron (Creative Director) info@circletalk.org (303-579-1153)

About Covia

For more than 50 years, Covia has been a leading nonprofit provider of housing and services for older adults in the Bay Area.
